

Dear Value Client

Allow me to share with you the importance of arranging marine insurance coverage to safeguard your shipment.

Remember 23 March 2021
Below ship blocked the Suez Canal.

And the recent

The 8,553-TEU container vessel Stratford experienced a severe fire on Monday, 28 July, in the South China Sea.

Who pay for the damages when accidents happen on the vessel ?

When carrier declared “General Average”

Shippers on board the vessel will has to share the “total charges”.
Whether your cargo is lcl or FCL

Carrier will start demanding for your CIPL, Export Permit and Marine insurance Policy.

Those who has the Marine Insurance Policy
Carrier will on-forward your shipment to your final destination without charges.

Those who unable to produce the Insurance policy
Will have to share the damage charge..

If you refuse to pay, they will Auction off your cargo.
They might take legal actions to recover the outstanding from you after deducting your “auction off” value.

On top of it , you still must pay us
the EXW charges and ocean freight.

Please protect your own interests.
